DOCTORATE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Online Campus

The Doctorate of Business Administration (DBA) at Geneva Business School will help you solve a current business issue and make a tangible contribution to the field in which you work. Aimed at individuals who are looking for an opportunity to deep dive into a problem or idea that requires research, analysis, and guidance from industry experts to develop recommendations and solutions.

Develop your quantitative and qualitative skills, apply deep knowledge and hands-on experience to your field of business, and make an impact on business management, policy, or strategy.

If you have considerable business experience and need a flexible yet intensive program to drive your business or career to the next level, the DBA is your vehicle. Study 100% in English with access to a diverse stable of industry experts, exclusive mentors, and a dedicated supervisor. Attend and learn from in-depth webinars and online conferences.

Work around your own schedule and benefit from our flexible tuition payment plan, which covers essential learning materials, and attendance at exclusive conferences. With limited scholarships also available, the DBA is within reach for any ambitious student.

During years one and two of your Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) degree, you will undertake six self-study courses through our innovative online learning platform. These are designed to equip you with the skills you will need for your business research project during your third and final year.

Your project could focus on a real-life business situation or a problem that you are dealing with in your current work situation. Explore a new business idea or focus on or current issues that are impacting the industry you are working in.

Take a modern approach to business research and become an expert in your field.
