FINE ART INTERNATIONAL MANAGEMENT MBA

Master of Business Administration with a specialization in Fine Art International Management
Geneva Campus

Be the first to study a fully immersive MBA in Fine Art International Management (FAIM). Gain high-level expertise from professionals in all areas of the Fine Art management sector with our pioneering FAIM MBA. Geneva Business School has been able to bring together educators among the top experts related to each of the seven specialized courses to offer the first comprehensive MBA program for the Fine Arts Industry.

The FAIM MBA will produce a new breed of business graduates, able to combine knowledge of the creative field of Fine Art with core financial and strategic management skills. Develop an understanding of the business of Fine Art with a diverse syllabus comprising finance, art law, art history, compliance, marketing, business management, technology, and logistics.

Become an asset manager, work for a bank or museum, specialize in Art Law or Art sales using cryptocurrency and NFTs. Get first-hand access to some of the most sought-after experts in the areas of Global Art Finance, Art Law, Compliance (AMLA), Art History, Fine Art Logistics, Entrepreneurship and so much more.

Taught in the birthplace of art law and home to the oldest freeport in the world, Geneva Business School has created an expert faculty selected from industry leaders such as Lalive (Art Law pioneer), Deloitte (Art Finance), Institut Restellini (Museum Management), Nelly Wenger (Strategic Management), and ArtNow! (Art History) for the only MBA of its kind.

Students will study two semesters in Geneva, before focusing on their final project either remotely or on campus, giving maximum flexibility in the final semester.

A management program of this caliber and depth does not exist anywhere else in Europe. Be among the first MBAs to specialize in Fine Art International Management.
