INTERNATIONAL EXECUTIVE MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Online Campus

The International Executive MBA (IEMBA) at Geneva Business School is a new format of MBA that allows you to choose what, when, and where you study. Aimed at working executives, candidates can select their own end goals and solve the business challenges they are currently facing. If you have a business problem or an innovative idea that you want to focus on intensely, the IEMBA is for you.

Our faculty are experienced industry professionals who offer practical insights and personalized mentoring that develop the business knowledge and soft skills needed for 21st-century leaders. Beyond online classes, you will undertake group work, case studies, project analysis, and attend guest lectures. Our faculty will work closely with you, guiding you towards your goals. Their mentorship will help you grasp the latest trends, and expand your professional network internationally.

The IEMBA is a hybrid of online and in-person group coursework, you can complete the work in your own time, at your own pace. This revolutionary program is ideal for experienced professionals, who want a flexible study schedule, or are seeking opportunities and want to return to work with the skills and qualifications that will take your career to the next level.

Over four intensive Leadership Development Weeks featuring core interpersonal and quantifiable classes, you will attend events featuring guest speakers, company visits, and face-to-face meetings with supervisors to social events and networking dinners.

Collaboration is a key feature of the IEMBA. You will work with like-minded international business executives who share your passion to make an impact – intrapreneurs who may become future business partners or collaborators.

Our teaching methodology reflects modern business: global, adaptable, and innovative.
